

PRIVACY POLICY

Visitors in this site are not required to provide any personal data.

360 Fund Insight, Inc. will make the best practices to protect our clients' data. 360 Fund Insight has adopted the adequate technical and organizational safety measures to guarantee the integrity of the data, as well as to avoid their alteration, loss, treatment, or unauthorized access.

We will limit access to customers information inside our company to individuals who need to perform their jobs, requiring our employees to keep it confidential.

It is your right to oppose, access, rectify and cancel the information facilitated and withdraw/revoke their authorization without retroactive effect. These rights can be exercised by directing the written communication (proving identity) to customerservice@360Fundinsight.com

Accessing this website can involve the use of cookies. Cookies are small amounts of information that are stored in the web browser used by each user so that the server remembers certain information that subsequently only the server that implemented it will read. Cookies have, in general, a limited time duration. No cookie permits the possibility of contact via the user's telephone number, their e-mail address or through any other means of contact. No cookie can extract information from the hard disk of the user or steal personal information. The only way by which the private information of a user forms part of the cookie file is if the user personally gives that information to the server. Those users who do not wish to receive cookies or who want to be informed of their presence can configure their web browser for this purpose.
